Increase in Security Deposits for Elections to Lok Sabha Vidhan Sabha

1525. SHRI RAJNI RANJAN SAHU: Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal under Government's consideration to increase the security deposits of independent candidate from Rs. 5000/- to Rs. 10,000/- in Lok Sabha and Rs. 2,500/- in Vidhan Sabha elections, in order to discourage frivolous candidates; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI HANS RAJ BHARDWAJ): (a) and (b) According to section 34 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, a candidate contesting for a parliamentary constituency should make a deposit of Rs. 500/- (Rs. 250/- if the candidate belongs to Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe) and a deposit of Rs. 250/- if he is contesting for an Assembly or Council constituency (Rs. 125/- if the candidate is a member of Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe).

As part of its proposals for electoral reforms, the Election Commission has recommended that the tendency of non-serious candidates to contest in the elections either on their own or having been set up vested interests should be checked. Towards that end, certain deterrent steps including the enhancement of the security deposit to be made by the contesting candidate has been proposed by the Election Commission. However, no decision has yet been taken.
